With decades of experience in public accounting, Sarah has established herself as a trusted advisor to businesses across various industries. Throughout her career, she has worked extensively with individual, corporate, and partnership tax clients, offering a wide range of accounting and tax services tailored to meet their unique needs. Her deep knowledge of consultative accounting services and strategic tax planning enables her to provide comprehensive guidance that supports long-term business growth and financial stability.

In her role serving clients in the healthcare and dental industries, Sarah applies her expertise to help practices optimize their tax strategies and maintain compliance, allowing them to focus on providing care. As a reviewer, she collaborates closely with SVA staff and client practice staff to gather and analyze the financial information needed to produce accurate financial statements. She takes the lead on tax planning, offering strategic recommendations that help clients navigate complex tax landscapes. Her involvement often extends to the preparation of tax returns, making her an integral part of the tax lifecycle for her clients.

Sarah is a member of the Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants (WICPA) and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).
