

Flora Hill, CPA

Manager

Flora is a Manager with SVA Certified Public Accountants, specializing in Federal and State tax planning, consulting, and compliance services for large and complex businesses that operate across multiple states.

She is well-versed in handling the tax needs of corporations, partnerships, and individuals, offering strategic solutions to ensure compliance with tax laws and optimize tax savings. Her expertise extends to performing tax nexus studies, which help multi-state businesses determine their state income tax, sales tax, and payroll tax filing requirements. Flora is also highly skilled in consulting on Federal and State income and payroll tax credits, as well as providing in-depth analysis related to tax entity creation, life cycle, and dissolution.

With her extensive background in multi-state taxation and a commitment to exceptional client service, Flora enjoys helping her clients achieve their business and personal financial goals. Whether advising on tax compliance, performing complex tax studies, or consulting on tax planning strategies, Flora's depth of knowledge and dedication to her clients make her an invaluable resource for those seeking expert guidance in the realm of taxation.

Flora is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the South Carolina Society of Certified Public Accountants.
